

ShipX is a tech-enabled final mile delivery service provider that helps e-commerce, retail and 3PL shippers execute seamless delivery of their shipments.

Expect Better Parcel Delivery.

ShipX executes faster and more efficient final mile delivery using world-class technology to optimize and track shipments. We believe in delivery networks with built-in redundancy to ensure reliability and continuity. We're committed to creating a greener earth by making all shipments through our network completely carbon neutral, and accelerating the transportation industry towards cleaner energy. Our focus is to provide a better delivery experience for both you and your consignees, enabling your success and growth through our delivery partnership. Our goal is to make the delivery process a valuable asset, not just a cost center.

A Green Approach to Logistics

ShipX is the first US-based final mile solutions provider to have achieved complete carbon neutrality. By leveraging partnerships and our technology platforms, we are committed to becoming an industry leader in sustainable logistics.

A Tech-Enabled, Redundant Network.

New technologies and a robust Vetted Delivery Network (VDN) allow us to build dynamic routing that has built-in redundancy, thus ensuring continuity on every shipment.

Simple, Predictable Pricing.

We take complexity out of the final mile pricing equation. Our rate sheets are clear and straightforward, making it easy to plan and price your products shipping.

Dock-to-Door Tracking.

By scanning every package at every milestone, we provide full visibility across the entire parcel journey and provide real-time tracking data on our site or yours.

A Flexible Partner.

ShipX gives shippers never-before-seen options in domestic ground delivery. We'll deploy scalable delivery solutions based on the size, speed and volume of your shipping output.

Dedicated Resources

Our expert operations and customer experience teams are committed to providing top-notch service, ensuring timely and consistent delivery of your shipments.

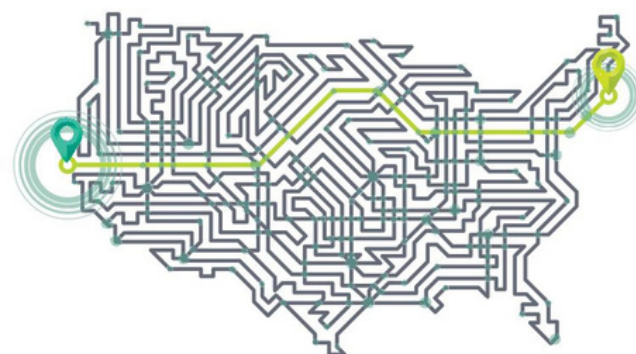

A Problem Solver.

Every client has its own challenges. Our passion and purpose is to help you achieve efficient and scalable shipping solutions that both you and your customers can rely on.
